

France Galop et Racing Breaks partnership extended until 2025

France Galop and Racing Breaks have extended their partnership until 2025. The London based travel agency, which has been working with France Galop for many years, specialises in organising trips to major racing events around the globe. This new contract strengthens the ties between the two entities, with Racing Breaks becoming the official France Galop hospitality agency.

As part of this mission, Racing Breaks will be involved in managing the hospitality at major events in the French racing calendar, and in particular for the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe weekend on Saturday 30 September and Sunday 1 October 2023 at the ParisLongchamp racecourse. The agency will also promote ticket offers internationally.

Racing Breaks is Europe's leading travel agency specialised in organising trips to major horse racing events. It offers complete travel packages for major race meetings around the world, from the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in France to Royal Ascot in England, the Dubai World Cup in Dubai, the Melbourne Cup in Australia and the Breeders' Cup in the United States.

Its team is specialised in organising a worry-free experience, from finding hotels to booking tickets, ensuring that their clients can relax and fully enjoy their chosen sporting event. The Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe trip will include an exclusive night out in Paris with a number of racing personalities, including six-time Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winning jockey Frankie Dettori, the founder of the company.

FRANCE GALOP, the association at the heart of French Racing

France Galop is the association that organises and controls horseracing in France. It encourages the breeding and training of racehorses by paying out prize-money in Flat and Jump races.

It has several missions, which include the organisation of a growing number of events at its racecourses at Auteuil, Chantilly, Deauville, ParisLongchamp and Saint-Cloud.

Each year, it organises 60 race days packed with events for the general public, like the Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, the Prix de Diane Longines and the Garden Party on 14th July. It also organises more than 500 corporate events a year. Offers for these events can be found under the new banner of France Galop Live.
